

The following is a list of counseling agencies within Sheboygan County that provide counseling, which may include individual, couples, family, and group therapy options. These agencies may employ therapists, counselors, psychologists, psychiatrists, social workers, and substance abuse counselors, among others, as mental health professionals and clinicians. Mental Health America Lakeshore (MHA) believes that professional treatment is beneficial and that recovery is possible.

For a more detailed referral and consultation to a mental health professional (i.e., insurance requirements, financial needs, medication management, specialty area of expertise, etc.) or any other questions as to what types of services and resources are available for your mental health, please contact the staff at MHA or visit our online mental health professional database at
